

Platform	-	particular operating system
Precise	-	exact, conforming
Principle	-	a rule or code of conduct
Relative Path	-	In relation to the location of the current document
Repetition	-	repeating
Required Fields	-	Necessary for user to enter
Reset Button	-	Changes all fields to default start values
Risk	-	The likelihood that an attack will occur
Scalable	-	Page is rendered the same way regardless of font size
Script Kiddies	-	Unskilled
Search Engine	-	software to search the Web
Selection List	-	For long list of options
Selector	-	Apply style rule with list of properties to an element
Server	-	Hosts Web Pages and provides resources
Significant	-	having meaning
Simplicity	-	Uncomplicated
Simulate	-	substitute
SmartPhone	-	able to connect to the Internet
Speculation	-	assumption
Spies	-	Person hired to attack
Spyware	-	User is unaware
Srch Eng Optimiz	-	Search Engine Optimization- make sites appear 1st in search
Stimulate	-	to excite
Strategy	-	a careful plan
Style Rule	-	A list of properties applied to an element
Style Sheet	-	A document that describes how a web page is rendered
Submit Button	-	Submits a form to a server
TABLE	-	a set of organized rows and columns
Tedious	-	tiresome
Text Area	-	For long text entries, multiple lines
Theoretical	-	speculation
Threat	-	Event that may defeat security measures
Threat Agent	-	Person that carries out threat
Thumbnail Image	-	Small representations of larger images
Touch Screen	-	User communicated through screen
Trojan Horse	-	Hides in system
Truncate	-	chop off
Ubiquitous	-	being everywhere
Unique	-	the one and only
URL	-	Uniform Resource Locator - location or resource on Internet
Validation	-	Make sure form data is valid to send
Versatile	-	having many uses
Virus	-	A program that performs malicious acts
Vulnerability	-	A weakness
Web Measure Unit	-	Absolute unit-fix in size, relative units-relative to other obj sizes
White Space	-	All spaces count as 1